

ARCHEOLOGY AND HISTORY

- 1. Explore Polish Mesolithic! Middle Stone Age communities of the Chełmno-Dobrzyń Lake District
SUPERVISOR: Grzegorz Osipowicz
- 2. Amicitia, memoria, iustum negorium – the importance of long-distance trade and Medieval power networks (East Central and Northern Europe – 9th-11th century)
SUPERVISOR: Piotr Pranke
- 3. Slavery and slave traders in Central and Northern Europe in the High Middle Ages
SUPERVISOR: Piotr Pranke

FINE ARTS (Decorative Arts and Conservation of Works of Art)

- 4. Identification of Synthetic Pigments and Dyes in Paints from palettes of Jerzy Duda-Gracz (1941-2004) – (supportive tool for identification of modern painting materials and authentication of contemporary paintings)
SUPERVISOR: Mirosław Wachowiak

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

- 5. Towards a post-American World Order: Russia's International Strategy
SUPERVISOR: Agnieszka Bryc
- 6. The status of contemporary cities in the international relations
SUPERVISOR: Agnieszka Szpak

HIGHER EDUCATION

- 7. What it's like to be a doctoral student in Poland? Doctoral Studies in the New Law on Higher Education and Science
SUPERVISOR: Anna Maria Kola

POLITICAL SCIENCE (european studies, political systems)

- 8. The EU Common Security and Defense Policy (CSDP) – selected aspects of Member States Engagement
SUPERVISOR: Michał Piechowicz
- 9. Women in politics
SUPERVISOR: Maria Winclawska

PSYCHOLOGY (cognitive personality psychology)

- 10. Processing self-related information: investigation of structure and functions of self-knowledge
SUPERVISOR: Łukasz Miciuk